Today's Hymns and Readings for Your Participation in the Divine Liturgy

Apolytikion of the Resurrection

Tone 4

Having learned the joyful message of the resurrection from the angels, the women disciples of the Lord cast from them their parental condemnation, and proudly brought the news to the apostles saying, "Death has been spoiled. Christ God is risen, granting the world Great Mercy."

Apolytikion of St. John Climacus

Tone 8

The barren wilderness thou didst make fertile with the streams of thy tears; and by thy deep sighing thou hast given fruit through thy struggles a hundredfold. Accordingly, thou hast become a star for the universe, sparkling with miracles. Therefore, O righteous Father John Climacus, intercede with Christ God to save our souls.

Apolytikion of St. Andrew-Tone 1

O Andrew first-called of the Apostles, brother of Peter the first-enthroned, intercede with the Master of all to grant peace to the world and great mercy to our souls.

Kontakion for Sunday of Great Lent

Tone 8

To thee, the champion leader, do I offer thanks of victory O Theotokos, thou who has delivered me from terror; but as thou that hast that power invincible, O Theotokos, thou alone can set me free. From all forms of danger free me and deliver me that I may cry unto thee: "Hail O Bride without Bridegroom."

Prokeimenon

O Lord, how magnified are Thy works. In wisdom hast Thou made them all. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

The Reading from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Hebrews (6:13-20)

Brethren, when God made a promise to Abraham, since He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, saying, "Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee." And thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For people indeed swear by what is greater, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. So when God, being minded to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of His counsel, He interposed it with an oath, that by two immutable things—in which it is impossible for God to lie—we might have a strong consolation, we, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope that is set before us; a hope, which we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and entering into "that which is within the veil," where Jesus entered as a Forerunner on our behalf, having become a High Priest "forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

The Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Mark (9:17-31)

At that time, a man came to Jesus, kneeling down and saying unto him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a dumb spirit. And wherever it seizes him, it dashes him down; and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid; and I asked Thy Disciples to cast it out, and they were not able." And Jesus answered them, "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to Me." And they brought the boy to Him; and when the spirit saw Jesus, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. And Jesus asked his father, "How long has he had this?" And he said, "From childhood. And it has often cast him into the fire and into the water, to destroy him; but if Thou canst do anything, have pity on us and help us." And Jesus said to him, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes." Immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe; help my unbelief!" And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You dumb and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again.” And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse; so that most of them said, “He is dead.” But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when Jesus had entered the house, His Disciples asked Him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?” And Jesus said to them, “This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer and fasting.” They went on from there and passed through Galilee. And Jesus would not have anyone know it; for He was teaching His Disciples, saying to them, “The Son of man will be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him; and after He is killed, He will rise on the third day.”

Megalynarion to the Theotokos

All creation rejoiceth in thee, O thou who art full of grace: the angelic hosts and the race of men. O hallowed temple and spiritual paradise, glory of virgins, of whom God was incarnate and became a little child, even our God who is before all the ages; for he made thy womb a throne, and thy body more spacious than the heavens. All creation rejoiceth in thee, O thou who art full of grace. Glory to thee.

ANTIOCHIAN WOMEN

*Antiochian Women 2024 Project
Widowed Clergy Wives Endowment Fund*

This year's Antiochian Women PROJECT seeks to honor our widowed clergy wives for the years of selfless service they have given to our Archdiocese. Our love for them and our deep respect has moved us to establish a dedicated Endowment Fund, from which the yearly dividends will be distributed among them. The amount of financial support we can offer each year will directly depend on the amount of funding we raise through this year's PROJECT. So let's show our heartfelt support for these well-deserving ladies, and inaugurate this Endowment Fund with a generous financial base.

FOR OUR BELOVED

*Proceeds from our Palm Sunday Fish Fry

Words of Wisdom

There will come a time when corruption and lewdness among the youth will reach the utmost point. There will hardly be any virgin youth left. They will see their lack of punishment and will think that everything is allowable for them to satisfy their desires. God will call them, however, and they will realize that it will not be possible for them to continue such a life. Then in various ways they will be led to God...that time will be beautiful. That today they are sinning greatly, will lead them to a deeper repentance. Just like the candle before it goes out, it shines strongly and throws sparks; with its light, it enlightens the surrounding darkness; thus, it will be the Church's life in the last age. And that time is near. † St Seraphim of Vyritsa

A Beautiful Tradition — The Blessing of Paschal Baskets

A central Eastern European Paschal tradition is the blessing of the baskets. The family gets together during Lent to prepare what will go into the basket. The basket will be taken to Liturgy on Pascha for a blessing. The tradition has spread across Orthodox churches in the United States, and is practiced at St. Andrew by many. All can participate in this beautiful tradition.

For a fuller description of this tradition and preparing your basket, go to:

saintandrew.net/traditionaleasterbaskets

The Tradition of Red Dyed Eggs for Pascha

The early Christians used red colored eggs to symbolize the Resurrection. This tradition has been passed down to us from them, through St. Mary Magdalene. After the Resurrection she used her social standing to gain an invitation to a banquet given by Emperor Tiberius Caesar. Upon arriving she greeted him with “Christ is Risen!” He laughed and responded, “Christ rising from the dead is as likely as the egg in your hand turning red.” Before he finished speaking, the egg turned bright red in her hand. She then cried, “Christ is Risen; for Jesus has burst forth from the tomb!” For this reason, the icons of St. Mary Magdalene often depict her holding a red egg in her right hand and we dye eggs red for Pascha!

We bring red hard boiled eggs to Liturgy on Pascha for the priest to hand out. Collectively several hundred eggs are handed out!

If you are dying eggs to bring to the feast PLEASE REMEMBER:

- ◆ The hard boiled eggs should be dyed on Holy Thursday. Elizabeth Sharon Yocum will be at the hall kitchen to dye eggs with other ladies on Holy Thursday following morning services. If you want to do this with her, please contact her at 909-553-6252 or email her at shar4j@gmail.com. You will need to bring eggs.
- ◆ If you would like to dye red eggs at home for the Paschal Liturgy, contact Elizabeth Sharon Yocum to get the dye. 909-553-6252 or email her at shar4j@gmail.com.
- ◆ MAKE SURE EGGS ARE DRY before bringing them to the temple on Pascha. Wet eggs drip red stain onto the temple floor, vestments and parishioner clothing. Not a good thing. If they are not dry, save them for your celebration at home. If you refrigerate them, moisture will condense on the outside when you remove them. Make sure they have dried from this before bringing them to Liturgy.

Words of Wisdom

God always helps. He always comes in time, but patience is necessary. He hears us immediately when we cry out to him but not in accordance with our own way of thinking.

† St Joseph the Hesychast

Plan now for Our Paschal Feast

Let us have a Paschal feast that expresses our joy at the Resurrection of Christ, and our great love for each other. There will be a sign-up board outside the temple beginning April 14th. Please sign-up and let our organizers know what you will share.

Plan to bring LOTS for everyone!

GREAT LENT & HOLY WEEK FAST MARCH 18—MAY 4

The Church prescribes a common fasting discipline for the faithful during Lent. M-F we abstain from flesh-meats, dairy products, fish, wine and oil. On weekends we are allowed as a relaxation wine and oil. On the Great Feasts of the Annunciation (March 25) and Palm Sunday (April 28), we are allowed fish. During the week we attempt to limit the number of our meals. It is customary for Orthodox to abstain from eating and drinking until noon. When we fast from food we also do from marital relations. The goal of this fast has little to do with food. The prescribed fast is a means to obtain a little hunger and to produce in us hunger and thirst for the Kingdom of God as well as sympathy for the hungry of the world that would drive us to almsgiving. As well by fasting the Spirit of God tames our unruly desires of the flesh, exposes sin that should be repented of as we recognize our addictions to earthly pleasures and things, frees up time normally taken by food preparation and consumption for spiritual reading, confession, visitation, and other good deeds. We turn our attention away from eating dead things that perish in order to give our attention to eating things which abide forever, such as the Word of God and the Holy Eucharist. If we have a negative attitude toward fasting we are completely missing the point and wasting our time. Fasting is a joy. We don't have to fast. We get to fast. It was precisely this change of attitude concerning fasting from joy to burden that led to the fall of man. If you don't feel positive ask yourself why you don't and hear your Lord's counsel to anoint your head when you fast. Are there specific things God is calling you to fast from? (TV, cell phone, speaking, sleeping too much, criticizing, unedifying reading, movies, internet, social media, eating out, smoking, computer games, shopping, theatre, coffee, sweets. . . .) May your fasting be blessed for your salvation!

FOOD FOR HUNGRY BOXES

During Great Lent each year we show our love for the hungry, hurting people in our own neighborhoods, as well as to those in hidden corners of the world by filling Food for Hungry boxes with our alms. We return our full to overflowing boxes to the Church and place them on the Solea on Palm Sunday. This is a central part of our fasting, prayer and alms giving during this holy season.

Through this tradition we have helped the homeless and the sick, fed the hungry, aided those in prison and their families, and provided relief for the war torn.

WE'RE BUILDING A HOUSE!

This summer a group from St Andrew will be going to Project Mexico to build a house for the needy—and you can help!

The group will leave June 25th and return July 1st. Each person in the group needs to raise $1,000 for Project Mexico and their transportation. They also need to raise additional funds for their personal needs. Group members are tasked with raising their funds—partly by asking family and friends to help. Give them a friendly ear if they approach you! If you want to donate to the overall group, contact the office for more information on how to help.
